ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I am very indebted to the staff of the Maryland State Archives located at 350 Rowe Boulevard, Annapolis, Maryland. They have been extremely helpful in assisting me to locate several elusive records. Even with their expert help and assistance there were still several Orrell Family Records which appeared in various indexes but which even collectively we were unable to locate.

I cannot help but express my gratitude to Robert Stanley Orrell of South Daytona, Florida, for the great work which he has accomplished in tracing and coordinating the various branches of the Orrell family. Bob operates and maintains the Orrell Genealogical Computer Database which traces Orrells from all parts of the country. Additionally Bob maintains the Orrell Census Computer Database which traces all Orrells through the various U.S. Federal Census. Bob was one of the five Charter Members of the Orrell Family Association which I founded in 1985. He currently serves as Editor of the Orrell Family Association Newsletter and is constantly researching and writing about the Orrell family. Additionally he served as Editor on this book.

I would certainly be remiss if I did not thank the three other Charter Members of the Orrell Family Association - Terence Anthony David Orrell (of Bolton, England), Edwin Howard Orrell (of Auburn, Massachusetts) and David Oliver Orrell (of Dayton, Ohio). They have freely shared their genealogical findings and have assisted in the gathering of Maryland data.

I have been extremely fortunate to have a supportive, loving family. My wife Carol has stood behind me in all of my Genealogical and Masonic pursuits. My son Reb, without complaint, has performed many of my family obligations, allowing me the time to research, write and complete this book.

Lastly, I would like to thank my close friends Jerry Gavin and Norman G. Williams. Jerry has constantly assisted in solving my computer problems and Norman has always been willing to help in any way possible. I value their friendship immensely.

FOREWORD

When Reverdy Lewin (Reb) Orrell asked me to serve as Editor on his latest book, I was elated. Reb and I have worked together on Orrell Family research each summer for several years and have swapped many notes. It was only natural for each of us to serve as Editor for our respective books. The chance to edit a prize research tool such as this book was a treat.

Having done research in the Maryland State Archives for two summers, I was all too familiar with the task involved in reading and transcribing the old documents and microfilm. Not only is the old handwriting hard to read, but the wrinkles, stains and tears make the job almost impossible. Many, many days and many more hours were spent compiling the records which make up this book. Every aspect of research is covered in the 10 different sections including wills, inventories, land records, military records, census records, city directories and even a list of books and newspaper mentioning the Orrell Family.

Not only does this book serve as a research tool, it is also an excellent book to just sit back, read and enjoy. The old wills and court cases will keep the reader spellbound. Anyone looking for a connection in the Baltimore area should check out the section on Baltimore City Directories. Every person interested in Orrell Genealogy should have a copy of Orrell Family Records.

INTRODUCTION

Unknowningly, preliminary research on this book began in 1985 when I started genealogical research of the Orrell family. At that point I began collecting all available data on the Maryland branch of the family and soon learned that Maryland was the cradle of the Orrell family in America. There have always been bits of information stating that Orrells had arrived elsewhere in this country at earlier times; however, to date, these particular Orrells have yet to be located, their existence proven, and their ancestors and descendants documented. This book proves the existence of the Orrell family in Maryland as early as 1676, a century before the American Revolution. The three earliest Orrells proven in Maryland were Thomas Orrell and Alexander Orrell of Calvert County and John Orrell of Dorchester County. Little information is known of Alexander Orrell and it is suspected that he died about 1717, that date being the last time he was located in the Court Records of that period. It is known that Thomas Orrell died between 25 August 1719 (date of will) and 2 May 1721 (date of probate). John Orrell died between 23 November 1723 (date of will) and 26 December 1723 (date of probate). It has not been proven if the three are related, although it is certainly suspected they were brothers or father and sons.

'BE NOT QUICK TO JUMP TO CONCLUSIONS'

The above motto should be the rule for every genealogist. Care must be exercised in trying to piece together family trees. For the most part, in this book, I have not tried to prove the genealogy of the various branches of the Orrell family in Maryland. Such an undertaking is not within the framework of this project. The main purpose of this project is to collect and preserve the records uncovered at the Maryland State Archives that document the Orrell family in Maryland. However in Section F of this book detailing Vital Records, I have drawn on all available information to cite parentage and marriage information. The task of detailing the genealogy of the Orrell family and it allied lines in Maryland and elsewhere will be dealt with in future books by Robert Stanley Orrell and myself. These might take the form of joint collaborations, individual efforts, or both.

SECTIONS OF THIS BOOK

This book is divided into 10 different sections. They include:

- | | | |
|---|------------|--|
| ■ | Section A: | Wills, Accounts, Inventories |
| ■ | Section B: | Court Records |
| ■ | Section C: | Land Records |
| ■ | Section D: | Military Records |
| ■ | Section E: | Census Records |
| ■ | Section F: | Vital Records: Births, Marriages, Deaths |
| ■ | Section G: | Baltimore City Directory |
| ■ | Section H: | Books, Newspapers |
| ■ | Section I: | Sample Documents |
| ■ | Section J: | Index |

In the Sample Documents section, I have only included a few of the documents in my possession. If I had included everything this book would be over 1,000 pages. Also, most of the early documents are either impossible or very difficult to read. I have included several different types so reader may see the difficulty in reading and transcribing these records. Many times I had to enlarge an 8x11 page to 33x17 to try to make it readable. Even then, using a magnifying glass, I was sometimes only able to decipher a few words, names and dates !

INTRODUCTION

NOTES AND FOOTNOTES

Throughout this book I have attempted to keep editorial comments and opinions to a minimum. On those occasions when I have made comments you will find them within a shaded box such as the one you are currently reading. At other times comments and clarifications are contained within footnotes.

At the beginning of any record you will find the location of that document at the Maryland State Archives. An example would be:

1799 Francis Orrell Caroline Co. Will JR No. B, 440 {WK 548-3}

The above entry indicates that:

1. ■ The document is dated 1799
2. ■ The document involves Francis Orrell
3. ■ The document was recorded in Caroline County, Maryland
4. ■ The document is a Will
(In certain sections where all of the documents are the same type, or where space is limited, I have omitted the description of the document.)
5. ■ The document can be found and located in Liber JR No. B, page 440.
6. ■ The document is also found on microfilm reel WK 548, 3rd section of reel. Entries with {French Brackets} always indicates micro-film reels. A + at the end of a bracket indicates the Orrell is a grantee (purchaser). Generally there are three or four different series of microfilm.
 - ★ {CR} - County Record Microfilm
 - ★ {SR} - State Record Microfilm
 - ★ {M} - Miscellaneous Microfilm
 - ★ {WK} - unsure - believed to have been microfilmed by the Mormon Church in Salt Lake City, Utah

MISSING INFORMATION

While an enormous amount of new Orrell information was located, this project was not without disappointment. It was earnestly hoped that this research would locate the parents of several Orrell's. In particular, I was anticipating the discovery of the parents of Edward V. Orrell, Daniel Black Orrell, and James Thomas Orrell. Edward V. Orrell is my great-great grandfather, Daniel Black Orrell is Robert Stanley Orrell's great-great-great grandfather, and James Thomas Orrell, Sr. is the great-great-great grandfather of David Oliver Orrell. We find it rather ironic, and also rather sad, that as Orrell Family Historians, we often are able to supply ancestries for inquiring Orrells, tracing their roots directly back to John Orrell, Sr. of Dorchester County, Maryland. Yet we as the 'supposed experts' have each been obstructed in our quest to genealogically certify our direct heritage back to John Orrell, Sr. Bob, David, and myself are certain of our descendency from John Orrell, Sr. almost certain of our complete Orrell line.

HOW THIS BOOK WAS RESEARCHED, WRITTEN, AND PREPARED

During this project I used the following computer equipment and computer software:

- ★ 286-AT IBM^{®1} Compatible Computer operating at 12 MHz, containing 1 meg RAM, 65 meg Hard Drive, and VGA Color Monitor.
- ★ 286-AT IBM Compatible Computer (Laptop) operating at 12 MHz, containing 1 meg RAM, 40 meg Hard Drive, and VGA Backlit Black and White Monitor.
- ★ 386-AT IBM Compatible Computer operating at 40 MHz, containing 4 megs RAM, 210 meg Hard Drive, and Super VGA Color Monitor.
- ★ Panasonic^{®2} KP-P4420 Laser Printer with ½ meg RAM.
- ★ Star^{®3} NX-2400 - 24 pin printer.
- ★ WordPerfect^{®4} 5.1 - computer word processing program.
- ★ WordPerfect 5.1 for Windows^{®5} - computer word processing program.
- ★ Publisher's Powerpak^{®6} (Scalable soft fonts for WordPerfect)
- ★ PAF 2.2 (Personal Ancestral File)^{®7} - computer genealogy database program.
- ★ Census db^{®8} - computer genealogy database program for Census information.

I would estimate that I have spent well over 1,000 hours in researching and writing this book. Additionally, several hundred dollars were spent making copies of microfilm from microfilm reader-printers. Not all documents were available on microfilm. In those cases they were photostated by the Maryland State Archives at a cost of $ 2.00 per page. All books were xeroxed and bound by the author.

HISTORY OF EARLY MARYLAND

Maryland is neither the largest, smallest, oldest, nor the youngest state in America. It is often called America in miniature. It is a middle-border state. Its northern boundary - the Mason - Dixon line was the line that divided the North and South in the American Civil War. While technically a Southern state, most of Maryland sided with the North in this battle.

Of Maryland's 12,303 square miles almost one-fifth is water - a higher ratio of water to land than that of almost any other state. This one factor is significant in Maryland's history and culture. There is an abundance of maritime activity in this state; especially in the Port of Baltimore. The Chesapeake Bay with a water area of 1,726 square miles is the largest inlet on the Atlantic coast of the United States and measures 185 miles in length. It supplies crabs, oysters and a host of other varieties of fish.

The true founder of Maryland, the fourth successful English colony in America, was George Calvert, the first Lord Baltimore. Maryland was named in honor of Queen Henrietta Maria. On March 5, 1634, two ships the Ark and the Dove entered the Province of Maryland at the mouth of the Potomac River. They settled in what is now St. Mary's City.

EVOLUTION OF MARYLAND COUNTIES:

1755, 1860, 1985

THE STATE FLAG OF MARYLAND

Maryland's flag has the coats of arms from both the Calvert and Crossland families. Calvert was the family name of the Lord Baltimores. Crossland was the family name of the mother of George Calvert, the first Lord Baltimore. The flag was first used in about 1886. It was officially made the State Flag of Maryland in 1904. The cross on the top of the flagstaff was added in 1945.

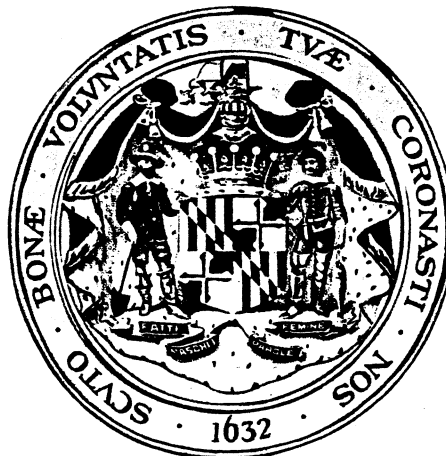

THE GREAT SEAL OF MARYLAND

The Maryland State Seal has two sides - the Obverse and the Reverse. The Obverse of the seal shows a picture of Lord Baltimore dressed as a knight in armor and mounted on a charging horse. The Latin words mean 'Cecil, Absolute Lord of Maryland and Avalon, Baron of Baltimore.'

The Reverse of the seal shows a coat of arms with symbols from the Calvert and Crossland family. Above the shield is a crown and a helmet. On one side of the shield is a farmer and on the other side a fisherman. These represent Lord Baltimore's two colonies of Avalon and Maryland. The Calvert motto is on the scroll. It is written in Latin and translated means, 'manly deeds, womanly words.' The Latin on the border of the shield means 'with favor wilt thou compass us with a shield.' This is a quotation from the Book of Psalms in the Bible. (Psalms 5:13)

THE GREAT SEAL OF MARYLAND

MARYLAND STATE ARCHIVES

The Maryland State Archives is the historical agency and archives for the State of Maryland. It serves as the central depository for the public records of Maryland state, county, and local government from the colonial period to the present.

As early as 1729 a 'Repository for Old Records' was erected in Annapolis. In 1772, when a new State House was built, four rooms were set aside for an archives. A new structure was erected in 1859. In 1935 the Maryland Hall of Records was opened in Annapolis on land deeded to the State by St. John's College. This remained the cite of the archives until a new Hall of Records was built in 1986 on Rowe Boulevard. The new facility is a truly beautiful structure and is a pleasure to research in.

The Maryland State Archives contains volume and card indexes in the Search Room plus thousands of microfilm reels in the Microfilm Reading Room. There are about 140 indexes in the Search Room. Some of these take the form of pages of xeroxed index cards bound into book form. Others are alphabetized index cards, while others are huge index books of land records from the various Maryland counties. Here are a few examples of the various types of records: Bulletin No. 17, Index Holdings, published in 1972, states:

PROBATE RECORDS

The indexes to probate records are divided into two categories: central agency records and county records, because two sets of probate records, theoretically identical, have been preserved for the Colonial Period. The chief probate officer of the Province was located in the capital; for some time in the earliest period, the Secretary of the Province served in this capacity, later it was the Commissary General. Papers were filed in the capital where they were recorded among the records of a central agency, known as the Prerogative Court. It is assumed that the Deputy Commissary kept some sort of docket of instruments of the county, but no record as such has been found. After the Revolution, the General Assembly ordered the original documents of the Prerogative Court to be sent to the county of origin and there to be recorded by the Register of Wills. This accounts for most of the second set of probate records for the Colonial Period. (Samples of probate records include:)

WILLS

Record of wills of deceased persons probated.

ACCOUNTS

(Administration Accounts)

Record of accounts filed by executors and administrators stating the value of decedents' estates and listing the payments made to creditors and to satisfy other charges against the estates. Often this record also shows the disposition of the balances remaining in estates among the heirs, but this information may be entered in a separate record called 'Distributions'.

ADMINISTRATION BONDS

(Administrators and Executors Bonds)

Record of bonds entered into by administrators and executors requiring that they faithfully perform their duties in the settlement of estates.

INVENTORIES

(Lists of Debts, Inventories of Personal Property, Inventories of Real Estate)

Record of appraisements of the personal property and lists of debts due to decedents. Since 1848, the appraisers appointed to appraise personal property have also been required to evaluate real estate. The earliest appraisements of real estate were simply recorded as totals in Orphans' Court Proceedings, but from time to time various counties began to record them in full in Inventories. More recently, some counties have established this as a separate series.

OTHER RECORDS:

LAND RECORDS

Primarily a record of instruments pertaining to real property, such as, deeds, assignments, leases, mortgages, releases of mortgages, powers of attorney, agreements and rights-of-way. In addition, the earlier volumes served as a sort of catch-all in which various other instruments were recorded. Some of these were eventually established as separate series, as for example, chattel mortgages, bills of sale, indentures of apprenticeship, manumissions of slaves, commissions and qualifications of civil officers, vital records and incorporations of church, social and business organizations. Other instruments found recorded in this series are cattle marks, certificate of strays, records of convicts brought to Maryland as servants, certificates of importation or removal of slaves, publications of freight rates, proofs of age and election returns.

COURT PROCEEDINGS

(Court Records, Entries of Judgments, Court Minutes)

Record of the proceedings of the court at each term of Court. Typically, the record begins with the style of court which states the date and place of meeting and lists the name of the justices present and perhaps the county sheriff and clerk of court. Also listed are the members of the grand jury and petit jury. This is followed by presentments and indictments, rules and orders of the court, admissions of attorneys, qualifications of civil officers, naturalizations and other routine business of the court. During the colonial period and the few years thereafter when the court served as the executive body of the county, the minutes also record the administrative actions of the court, such as, expenditure of county funds, assessment of taxes, appointment of constables, coroners, road overseers and other county officials, issuance of licenses to keep ordinaries and sell liquors, establishment of tavern rates and so forth.

Regarding the judgments - in its simplest form, this is a record of criminal and civil cases tried before the county court. The style of court usually appears at the beginning of each term of Court. In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries these records were kept in considerable detail. Quite often it also included the minutes of the court, as described above.

VITAL STATISTICS

(Marriage Licenses, Record of Births, Record of Deaths)

Originally, a record of marriage licenses issued by the clerk of the county court under the provisions of Chapter 12 of the Acts of February 1777. The information given includes the date the license was issued, the names of the male and female and occasionally the name of the minister to whom the license was directed. The record was kept very carefully because each clerk was required to account for the fees he received in payment for the licenses. No indication is given as to whether the marriage was ever performed.

In 1865, an act was passed providing for the registration of births, marriages and deaths. It was made the duty of the clerks of the circuit court for the several counties and the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore City to record this information in specially prepared books that were furnished them by the Secretary of the Senate. The Record of Marriages was to give the date and place of marriage, name, residence and official station of the minister, name, age, color, residence, marital status and occupation of each party, and date of record. This record was indifferently kept in some counties and the Act was eventually repealed in 1882. The systematic registration of marriage was finally accomplished by the passage of Chapter 497 of the Acts of 1886. The information given is essentially the same as required by the Act of 1865 with the addition of the date the license was issued. Register of births recorded under the provisions of Chapter 130 of the Acts of 1865; gives date and place of birth, name of child, sex, color, names of parents, father's occupation and date of recordings. In most counties, this record was poorly kept. Register of deaths recorded under the provisions of Chapter 130 of the Acts of 1865; gives the date of death, name, sex, color, marital status, age, residence, occupation, place of death, place of birth, parents' names, residence of parents, cause of death, place of burial and date of records. Usually contains only a few entries.

Note: The above represents only a brief explanation of some of the types of records available at the MSA.

WILLS, ACCOUNTS, INVENTORIES

The first three entries are all for Thomas Orrell of Charles Co., MD. This is the earliest will thus far located in Maryland. Please refer to Section B for various Court proceedings that Thomas Orrell was involved in.

Another Orrell of early Charles Co. was Alexander Orrell. No will has yet been located for him, although he was found in Charles Co. court cases until 1717.

from the Orphans' Court for Baltimore City, or any other Court for authority to do so.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath all of my estate and property, whether real, personal or mixed, of whatsoever kind, nature and description and wheresoever situate, which I may own at the time of my death, unto my friend, Jerome Martin Blair, and my attorney, George C. Bast, Jr., their survivor, successor or successors, as Trustees, in special trust and confidence, nevertheless, for or upon the following use and purposes and with the powers hereinafter set out, that is to say in trust:

To take, have, receive and hold my said estate, to invest same and keep same invested, and to change the investments thereof from time to time, under and subject to the powers and provisions hereinafter set forth, to collect the rents, revenues, income, issues and profits arising therefrom and thereout, and after first paying therefrom all taxes, costs, charges and expenses incident to the trust, including compensation to said Trustees for their services hereunder equal to that customarily allowed by the Circuit Courts for Baltimore City to a trustee performing similar services when acting under its jurisdiction, to dispose of the net income and principal of my estate as follows:

My Trustee shall pay the net income from my said estate for the education, maintenance and support of my daughter, Catherine C. Orrell, until she shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years. In addition to said payments of income, my Trustees shall pay to or for the use of my said daughter so much of the principal of the said trust estate as in the opinion of my Trustees shall be required for her education, maintenance and support, my Trustees to be the sole judge of the necessity of such payments of principal. When my said daughter shall have attained the age of twenty-one (21) years, my said Trustees shall grant, convey, pay-over and transfer unto her the principal of the trust property as then constituted free, clear and discharged from any trust.

(a) In the event that my said daughter, Catherine C. Orrell, should predecease me, or should die before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, leaving a child or children living at the time of the death of the survivor of herself and myself, then in either of such events, I give, devise and bequeath my said estate as aforesaid, real, personal or mixed as constituted at the time of my death or as constituted in the hands of my said Trustees in the administration of the trust for my said daughter, as the case may be, unto such child or children of my said daughter, if more than one then in equal shares and if only one then to that one, absolutely; if in the event however, that my said daughter Catherine C. Orrell, should predecease me, or should die before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, without leaving a child or children living at the time of the death of the survivor of herself and myself, then in either of such events, I give, devise, and bequeath my said estate as aforesaid, real, personal or mixed as constituted at the time of my death or as constituted in the hands of my said Trustees in the administration of the trust for my daughter, unto Catherine M. White, grandmother of my said daughter, if then living, and if the said Catherine M. White, is not then living then unto such of my brother and sisters as shall then be living, in equal shares, share and share alike.

It is my intention under this paragraph (a) that should all or any of my estate pass to any child or children of my said daughter, Catherine C. Orrell, or to the said Catherine M. White, or to my brother and sisters, as the case may be, the same shall pass free, clear and discharged of any and all trust, and shall be accordingly granted, conveyed, paid-over and transferred free of any trust by my Trustees.

(b) Any portion or portions of the trust estate at any time or times lawfully remaining in the hands of my Trustees, not validly distributed or distributable under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this item second and any portion or portions of the trust estate distributable by reference to this paragraph (b) shall be by my Trustees granted, conveyed, paid over and delivered absolutely and free from trust to those persons at such time or times living who would be distributees of my personal estate had I at such time or times died intestate, a widower, seized and possessed of such portion of the trust estate, and domiciled in the State of Maryland, and in the proportions to which such person or persons would be entitled to the distribution in case of such intestacy.

I do fully authorize and empower my said Trustee to invest, reinvest and change the investments under this my Will from time to time, and for that purpose and for any other purpose of the trust without previous application to or subsequent ratification by any Court of Law, Equity, or Probate, and for such consideration and on such terms as to my said Trustees shall seem proper, to sell at public or private sale, mortgage, lease, whether or not the term of said lease may or will extend beyond the period of the duration of the trust, grant, assign, convey, bargain, transfer, exchange and in any other manner conditionally or absolutely to dispose of all or any part of the trust property whenever and as often as they may deem advisable or proper so to do, without obligation on the part of any purchaser or purchasers, or any other persons dealing with my Trustees to see to the application of the purchase money or other consideration passing to my Trustees. Said Trustees also are authorized and empowered to execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments in writing, and to do any and all matters and things necessary, required or advisable to be done in connection with the performance of their duties hereunder. Said Trustees are hereby expressly authorized and empowered to deposit all or any part of trust funds in such bank or banks or Savings and Loan Associations as in their judgement they shall think proper, regardless of the rate of interest, and shall not be limited or restricted in making investments and reinvestments to conform to the Laws of the State of Maryland, or rules of any Court, or by any implication therefrom.

Said Trustees are further authorized and empowered to retain, either for the personal use of my said daughter, or as investment, such property, real and/or personal, as may come into their hands through the administration of my estate until such time as said Trustees in their discretion shall deem it advisable to dispose of the same, subject however to the duration of the trust, without liability on the said Trustees for any loss to the trust estate, or any person interested by reason of such retention.

Said Trustees, while acting in good faith and exercising due care, shall not be liable or held responsible for any loss or depreciation in the value of the trust estate resulting from investments or reinvestments or deposits of trust funds in banks or Savings and Loan Associations as aforesaid.

The Trustees may in their sole and absolute discretion apportion between principal and income any expenditure, which in their opinion, should be apportioned, notwithstanding any legal or equitable rule to the contrary.

Should it become necessary to have a guardian appointed for my said daughter, Catherine C. Orrell, I desire and so direct that my friend, Jerome Martin Blair, be appointed guardian for her. The receipt of the guardian, whether it be the said Jerome Martin Blair or another, shall be a full and complete discharge to my Trustees for any sum or sums paid to her guardian.

Third: I hereby nominate and appoint the said Jerome Martin Blair and the said George C. Bast, Jr., and the survivor of them as Executors of this, my Last Will and Testament, and direct that they or either of them be excused from giving bond. I fully authorized and empower my said Executors and the survivor of them, at any time or times and for such purposes or purpose as may be deemed best and without previous application to or order from the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City or any other Court under whose jurisdiction my estate may be administered, on such terms and for such conditions as they may deem proper and advisable, to sell at public or private sale, lease, exchange and/or mortgage all or any part of my estate, real or personal, without obligation on the part of any one dealing with said Executors to see to the application of the purchase money or other consideration passing to them, and to compromise, adjust and settle claims of or against my estate on such terms and in such manner as my Executors may deem proper.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto affixed my hand and seal this 21st day of February in year one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight (1948) (said Will being five (5) pages in all, including this one), the pages hereto preceding being signed by me on the margin thereof for the purpose of identification. Richard Benson Orrell.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Testator, HERETO.

Will (#2)

No. 5, Case 756, File No. 61311

I, Richard Benson Orrell, of Baltimore City, in the State of Maryland, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, hereby revoking any and all former wills, codicils and other testamentary dispositions heretofore by me made, do make, published and declare this as and for my Last Will and Testament, in the manner and form following, that is to say:

First: I direct my Executors, hereinafter named, to pay my just debts and funeral expenses and to expend out of my estate such sums of money as to them shall seem proper for such funeral expenses, without necessity of obtaining permission from the Orphans' Court for Baltimore City, or any other Court for authority to do so.

Second: After the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses as aforesaid, I give, devise and bequeath all of my estate and property, whether real, personal or mixed, of whatsoever kind, nature and description and wheresoever situate, which I may own at the time of my death, unto my friend, Jerome Martin Blair, and my attorney, George C. Bast, Jr., their survivor, successor or successors, as Trustees, in special trust and confidence, nevertheless, for or upon the following use and purposes and with the powers hereinafter set out, that is to say in trust:

To take, have, receive and hold my said estate, to invest same and keep same invested, and to change the investments thereof from time to time, under and subject to the powers and provisions hereinafter set forth, to collect the rents, revenues, income, issues and profits arising therefrom and thereout, and after first paying therefrom all taxes, costs, charges and expenses incident to the trust, including compensation to said Trustees for their services hereunder equal to that customarily allowed by the Circuit Courts for Baltimore City to a trustee performing similar services when acting under its jurisdiction, to dispose of the net income and principal of my estate as follows:

My Trustee shall pay the net income from my said estate for the education, maintenance and support of my daughter, Catherine C. Orrell, until she shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years. In addition to said payments of income, my Trustees shall pay to or for the use of my said daughter so much of the principal of the said trust estate as in the opinion of my Trustees shall be required for her education, maintenance and support, my Trustees to be the sole judge of the necessity of such payments of principal. When my said daughter shall have attained the age of twenty-one (21) years, my said Trustees shall grant, convey, pay-over and transfer unto her the principal of the trust property as then constituted free, clear and discharged from any trust.

(a) In the event that my said daughter, Catherine C. Orrell, should predecease me, or should die before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, leaving a child or children living at the time of the death of the survivor of herself and myself, then in either of such events, I give, devise and bequeath my said estate as aforesaid, real, personal or mixed as constituted at the time of my death or as constituted in the hands of my said Trustees in the administration of the trust for my said daughter, as the case may be, unto such child or children of my said daughter, if more than one then in equal shares and if only one then to that one, absolutely; if in the event however, that my said daughter Catherine C. Orrell, should predecease me, or should die before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, without leaving a child or children living at the time of the death of the survivor of herself and myself, then in either of such events, I give, devise, and bequeath my said estate as aforesaid, real, personal or mixed as constituted at the time of my death or as constituted in the hands of my said Trustees in the administration of the trust for my daughter, unto Catherine M. White, is not then living then unto such of my brother and sisters as shall then be living, in equal shares, share and share alike.

It is my intention under this paragraph (a) that should all or any of my estate pass to any child or children of my said daughter, Catherine C. Orrell, or to the said Catherine M. White, or to my brother and sisters, as the case may be, the same shall pass free, clear and discharged of any and all trust, and shall be accordingly granted, conveyed, paid-over and transferred free of any trust by my Trustees.

I do further provide that the receipt of any guardian or guardians appointed for any child or children of my said daughter shall be a full and complete discharge to my Trustees for any sum or sums paid or property transferred to such guardian or guardians.

(b) Any portion or portions of the trust estate at any time or times lawfully remaining in the hands of my Trustees, not validly distributed or distributable under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this item second and any portion or portions of the trust estate distributable by reference to this paragraph (b) shall be by my Trustees granted, conveyed, paid over and delivered

I do fully authorize and empower my said Trustee to invest, reinvest and change the investments under this my Will from time to time, and for that purpose and for any other purpose of the trust without previous application to or subsequent ratification by any Court of Law, Equity, or Probate, and for such consideration and on such terms as to my said Trustees shall seem proper, to sell at public or private sale, mortgage, lease, whether or not the term of said lease may or will extend beyond the period of the duration of the trust, grant, assign, convey, bargain, transfer, exchange and in any other manner conditionally or absolutely to dispose of all or any part of the trust property whenever and as often as they may deem advisable or proper so to do, without obligation on the part of any purchaser or purchasers, or any other persons dealing with my Trustees to see to the application of the purchase money or other consideration passing to my Trustees. Said Trustees also are authorized and empowered to execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments in writing, and to do any and all matters and things necessary, required or advisable to be done in connection with the performance of their duties hereunder. Said Trustees are hereby expressly authorized and empowered to deposit all or any part of trust funds in such bank or banks or Savings and Loan Associations as in their judgement they shall think proper, regardless of the rate of interest, and shall not be limited or restricted in making investments and reinvestments to conform to the Laws of the State of Maryland, or rules of any Court, or by any implication therefrom.

Said Trustees are further authorized and empowered to retain, either for the personal use of my said daughter, or as investment, such property, real and/or personal, as may come into their hands through the administration of my estate until such time as said Trustees in their discretion shall deem it advisable to dispose of the same, subject however to the duration of the trust, without liability on the said Trustees for any loss to the trust estate, or any person interested by reason of such retention.

Said Trustees, while acting in good faith and exercising due care, shall not be liable or held responsible for any loss or depreciation in the value of the trust estate resulting from investments or reinvestments or deposits of trust funds in banks or Savings and Loan Associations as aforesaid.

The Trustees may in their sole and absolute discretion apportion between principal and income any expenditure, which in their opinion, should be apportioned, notwithstanding any legal or equitable rule to the contrary.

Third: Should it become necessary to have a guardian appointed for my said daughter, Catherine C. Orrell, I desire and so direct that my friend, Jerome Martin Blair, be appointed such guardian. But in the event that the said Jerome Martin Blair should die or be unable to act as guardian, I desire and so direct that my step-son, George H. McConville, be appointed guardian for her. The receipt of the guardian, whether it be the said Jerome Martin Blair or another, shall be a full and complete discharge to my Trustees for any sum or sums paid to her guardian.

Fourth: I hereby nominate and appoint the said Jerome Martin Blair and the said George C. I fully authorized and empower my said Executors and the survivor of them, at any time or times and for such purposes or purpose as may be deemed best and without previous application to or order from the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City or any other Court under whose jurisdiction my estate may be administered, on such terms and for such conditions as they may deem proper and advisable, to sell at public or private sale, lease, exchange and/or mortgage all or any part of my estate, real or personal, without obligation on the part of any one dealing with said Executors to see to the application of the purchase money or other consideration passing to them, and to compromise, adjust and settle claims of or against my estate on such terms and in such manner as my Executors may deem proper.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto affixed my hand and seal this 9th day of September in year one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight (said Will being five (5) pages in all, including this one, the pages hereto preceding being signed by me on the margin thereof for the purpose of identification. Richard Benson Orrell.

It is thereupon this twentieth day of February eighteen hundred (1800) by Alexander Contee Hanson, Chancellor, and by the authority of this court adjudged, ordered, and decreed that the land and premises called in the Bill Revival and in the mortgage deed herewith exhibited called Revival in Caroline County be immediately sold and that Robert Orrell of said county be and he is hereby appointed the Trustee for making sale thereof and that the course and manner of his proceedings shall be as follows: He shall first lodge with Register of this court a Bond to the estate of Maryland executed by himself with a surety or sureties approved by the Chancellor in the penalty of four hundred pounds current money and conditioned for the faithful performance of the trust reposed in him by this decree or to be reposed in him by any future decree or order in the premises. He shall then give notice by advertisement inserted at least three weeks successively in some convenient newspaper and set up during the same time at convenient public places in the county of the time place manner and terms of sale. He shall then proceed to sell the said land and premises at public auction the purchaser or purchasers of the said property giving Bond or Bonds to the said Trustee as such with security for the payment of the purchase money with interest within the term of fifteen months from the time of sale and as soon as conveniently may be after the sale the trustee shall return to this court a full and particular account of his proceedings under this decree with an affidavit of the truth thereof and of the fairness of the sale annexed and from the Chancellors ratification of the sale and payment of the purchase money and not before the purchaser or purchasers of any of the said property shall be entitled to hold the same free and clear from all claims of the complainant and defendants and the trustee shall bring into this court the money arising from the sale to be applied under the Chancellors direction to the discharge of the mortgage debt in the Bill mentioned and the costs of suit after deduction such commission as the Chancellor shall think proper to allow the said Trustee for the whole trouble and expense by him incurred in the execution of his office.

And the Chancellor hereby expresses his regret that it is not in his power to comply with the wishes of the defendants and their guardian in directing the property by them mentioned to be sold instead of the mortgaged property. He directs an immediate sale instead of allowing a reasonable time for paying the mortgage debt because the complainants counsel consents to a sale on credit and without consent the Chancellor would be obliged to decree a sale for ready money after the expiration of the time limited for payment as aforesaid. - Alexander Contee Hanson, Chancellor.

Upon which decree was written the following agreement in behalf of the complainant I consent to the above decree.

In case of William Boone, an insolvent debtor, Caroline Co., 1804, Robert Orrell was appointed Trustee.

In the list of the sales of the goods, chattels of William Boone, taken by Robert Orrell, trustee the following is recorded at the bottom:

N.B. - It is necessary here to remarked that Mr. Boone priced (as I apprehended) the articles mentioned in his schedule at the very high prices, merely to keep up appearances, I can conceive of no other idea, for the property all, was as ordinary as can be imagined and this being known to the neighborhood round but few purchasers attended, indeed it was one cause why I so long declined accepting the appointment of trustee (viz. three or four years) it appeared to me that censure would be inevitable the goods being priced so high in the schedule, when I knew they would see for nothing in comparison. I would also observe that his Books of Accounts are not worth one shilling. As it appears that he had collected all that was separate upon them previous to whilst he was engaged and insolvent about obtaining a law for his discharge. I have not been able to ascertain any who stand charged in his books but what either have receipts against them, or accounts equal to, and sometimes exceeding them. Again, should there be any remote cases where the money may be due in every case the Act of Limitation would bar them if plead; under these circumstances I deed it imprudent to proceed or make any attempt at collection on those books, without positive instructions from the Creditors and prompt indemnification to defray the expense of ? and that previous to the commencements of suits as I am fully persuaded that in every case, a non suite would be inevitable. - Robert Orrell, Trustee of William Boone.

James Carter, administrator of Edward B. Hardcastle vs. John Orrell and the heirs of Robert Orrell (if any) and others. In Chancery 31 May 1843.

That at the time of his death he was largely indebted to the complainants intestate and others. That the said William Orrell left the following persons his heirs and said Margaret his sister who has lately intermarried with Thomas DeRochbrune, Daniel Orrell his brother, Zebulon Orrell his decease brother Joseph Orrell and Robert John Orrell and Henry Orrell the sons of his deceased brother Henry Orrell. The said Zebulon, Robert John and Henry Orrell being minors and John Orrell his brother of the State of Pennsylvania. Know ye therefore that we have given special order in our said Court to assign and appoint a guardian for the aforesaid infants and to take the answer of the said infants by such guardian to the said Bill and therefore we command you that at such certain day and place as you shall think fit you go to the said defendants if they cannot conveniently come to you and assign and appoint a guardian and to the aforesaid infants and take the answer of the said infants by such guardian to the said bill and such guardians corporal oath upon the Holy Evangelist to be administered by you the said answer being distinctly and plainly wrote and when you shall have so taken the said answer you so send the same, closed up under your seal, together with your certificate and this writ unto us in our said Chancery.

Emerson printer and publisher of 'The Denton Pearl' a weekly newspaper published in Denton in said county and made oath on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God that the annexed notice and order was published in the said newspaper once and in each of three successive weeks before the tenth day of July in the year eighteen hundred and forty three (1843).

And afterwards to wit on the 29th day of December 1843 the Chancellor passed his decree in the said cause in the words following to wit:

It is thereupon this twenty ninth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty three (1843) by Theodercik⁶ Bland Chancellor and by the authority of this court adjudged, ordered and decreed that the real estate of William Orrell deceased, in the proceedings mentioned or so much thereof as may be necessary for the payment of his debts, be sold for that purpose. -------------	--------------------	-----------------------	---

Orrell's Chance - Cert 378½, BC & GS 45, f 262

(Original located in Index #114, Dorchester Co, Patented Cert. #2262. Patent states "Orrell Chance, 378½ acres, surveyed for John Orrell 15 April 1771".)

From the Land Office book, 1771 - 1774:

John Orrell's certificate of 378½ acres - Orrell's Chance, patented 27th January 1773. Dorchester County, 15th April 1771. By virtue of a special warrant of resurvey granted unto John Orrell of the county aforesaid bearing date the twelfth day of December seventeen hundred and seventy (1770) to a resurvey all his part it being one hundred acres as set forth in the warrant of a tract or parcel of land called Clement's Chance originally on the ninth day of December anno domini seventeen hundred and nineteen (1719) granted unto a certain John Clement for two hundred acres and on new rent also by renewment the first day of January seventeen hundred and seventy (1771) to resurvey and include a tract or parcel of land called Force Putt originally on the seventeenth day of April seventeen hundred and sixty four (1764) granted unto the aforesaid John Orrell for ninety five acres.

I humbly certify that by virtue of the aforesaid warrant of resurvey I have carefully resurveyed for and in the name of him the aforesaid John Orrell the aforesaid tract or parcels of land separately and find them to contain as follows: John Orrell's part of Clement's Chance contains within his lines of division one hundred and fifteen acres, fifteen acres of which is surplus owing partly to an error in dividing the land and partly to the surplusage contained with the whole tract which is eleven acres, owing as I apprehend to an error in containing the original survey as it only calls for course and distance. Force Putt contains within the lines ninety five acres, four acres and one half acre of which lies in within the same lines of the aforesaid John Orrell's part of the aforesaid more ancient survey called Clement's Chance which by virtue of the aforesaid warrant of resurvey I have included. I also certify that the aforesaid tracts or parcels of land exclusive of the aforesaid four and one half acres of land that lies with an elder survey contains two hundred and five and one half acres of land. I likewise certify that I have by virtue of the aforesaid warrant of resurvey added to the aforesaid two hundred and five and one half acres of land one hundred and seventy three acres of vacant land and I have reduced the whole into one entire tract now called Orrell's Chance lying and being in Dorchester County. Beginning for the out bounds of the resurvey (boundaries not copied).

The patent is recorded in BC & GS 43 folio 519-521 and states basically the same as the above.

The actual Survey has been examined and states the above facts.

The name of Dividan is unique in the Orrell family. This could possibly a misprint and should have been David Orrell or Dordon Orrell.

¹⁹ Bible records show birth in Maryland in 1767. Tombstone reads 1769. The only other reference to him actually being in Maryland (other than Census Records - see Section E) was the following: 'Daniel Sherwood, Daniel Black Orrell, Robert Bishop, and James Horney all left Caroline Co., MD about the same time and went to North Carolina.' Source: Caroline Co. Land Records regarding a land transaction with Robert Bishop above. Married Mary Emily Hutchinson abt 1804. They had the following children: Emily Orrell, Covington J. ²¹ Parents were married June 1774. Listed in Caroline Co. Chancery Docket in 1796 as infant defendant heir of Thomas Orrell. This would probably set birth between 1779 - 1786. In 1779 she would have been under 18 years of age in 1796, an infant in the eye of the law. A marriage date of 19 April 1806 to Jeremiah Rhodes would point to a birth of about 1786 or before.

²² See notes for sisters above. This is the same James Orrell who married Elizabeth Orrell in January 1813. His death was reported in the Republican Star. (See Section H.)

²³ See notes to sister Elizabeth Orrell above. Married 21 May 1801 Lewis Rhodes. She died June 1845 in Denton, Caroline Co., MD and was buried in the Catholic Church Cemetery in Denton leaving all her effects to the Catholic Church. Her will was dated 13 March 1845, Caroline Co., MD.

Nearest kin was listed as James Orrell and Elizabeth Orrell. On 18 July 1799 Durden Orrell 'Surviving Executor' filed and made the Oath. No marriage information located on William Orrell. William had a brother and sister named James and Elizabeth. Elizabeth Orrell married Jeremiah Rhodes 19 April 1806 and would have still been unmarried in 1795. It is possible that James and Elizabeth could have been his siblings or children. William had a uncle Dorden Orrell. The surviving executor mentioned could have been this Dorden or a child.

Moved to Illinois about 1834.

³⁵ Married Thomas DeRochbrune on 24 September 1842. Orrell Computer Database lists their children as Muriah DeRochbrune and Adeline DeRochbrune (who married her first cousin Joseph Boon Orrell, son of Daniel Orrell and Rebecca Ann Boon. The common ancestor is Robert Orrell.) However it does appear that there is some problem with this hypothesis as Adeline DeRochbrune is listed as being born March 1836 and sister Muriah DeRochbrune is listed as being born about 1830, both several years before the marriage of their parents. It would appear that they would be the children of an earlier marriage by Thomas DeRochbrune and that Margaret Orrell is not their natural mother.

If they were born in 1821 and married 17 Aug 1835 Mary Ann Basford (see marriage section) the figure of 62 years marriage could be correct. For a more detailed study of Edward V. BALTIMORE CITY DIRECTORY

The Maryland State Archives maintains the Baltimore City Directory on micro-film and microfilm. The bulk of this listing was obtained from the Maryland State Archives records. Actual Baltimore City Directories from the George Peabody Library in Baltimore City and additional microfiche and microfilm of the Baltimore City Directory at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County Campus (UMBC) were also used in an attempt to include a complete listing of the Baltimore City Directory.

I have listed all references found. Neither the Maryland State Archives, Peabody, or UMBC have every year of the Baltimore City Directory. A year listed followed by the word 'NONE' indicates that year's directory has been searched without locating any ORRELL. Years not listed indicates that no directory for that year has been located at either the Maryland State Archives, Peabody Library, or UMBC.

¹ This entry clearly indicates a Negro Orrell. During this time period Whites and Coloreds were listed together in the same section. This entry was followed by an asterisk (*) indicating a 'Person of Color'. In later years Whites and Coloreds were listed in different sections of the Baltimore City Directory, although I have never located any other black Orrells in the Baltimore City Directory. I have searched many records and have not found any black Orrells in Maryland although it is documented that they exist in other states. Most slaves did not have last names. Many times upon being freed they took the name of the slave owner. I feel, with a fair degree of certainty, that this is an incorrect entry. It is possible that the entry was for a white Francis Orrell as the name Francis occurs quite frequently in the Orrell's of Maryland. This is the first recorded entry of an Orrell in the Baltimore City Directory (1829) and occurs 13 years before the next occurrence (1842).

BOOKS

NOTE: The Maryland State Archives - Hall of Records has many books in it's collection. I have searched all of the accessible books and have in this section recorded those books which mentions Orrells. Additionally I have used sources other than the Maryland State Archives and have cited books which list Maryland Orrells. The other places searched include: The Maryland Historical Society, George Peabody Library, University of Maryland - Baltimore County Campus (UMBC), Enoch Pratt Library, and the Maryland State Law Library. Since the main purpose of this book is to document the Orrell family in Maryland, I feel that the above method is proper and should be included.

ARCHIVES OF MARYLAND - AN HISTORICAL LIST OF PUBLIC OFFICIALS OF MARYLAND, published by the Maryland State Archives (1990), contains a listing of Governors, legislators, and other principal officers of government in Maryland from the period, 1632 - 1990. From page 484 we find:

Daniel Orrell	House of Delegates	Caroline County	1840
Daniel Orrell	House of Delegates	Caroline County	1841 ¹
Robert Orrell	House of Delegates	Caroline County	1799 - 1802
Robert Orrell	Maryland State Senator	Eastern Shore	1821 - 1825
William Orrell	House of Delegates	Caroline County	1827, 1829, 1831

The record cited below is the first Orrell located in Maryland. It is interesting to note that the transporter was John Abington of Calvert County. The early Orrells of Calvert Co. were Thomas Orrell, Alexander Orrell, Jane Orrell, Isabelle Orrell, and Rebecca Orrell. Never has a John Orrell been located in Calvert Co. However just because the transporter was from Calvert Co. doesn't mean that the persons transported had to remain in the same area. This person could have been the early John Orrell of Dorchester County. No other Orrells appear on this list. Therefore if this was the John Orrell of Dorchester County it would appear that he came by himself and later married.

Early Settlers of Maryland cites that John Orrell² was transported to Maryland by 1676. The Patent book mentioned JJ 15 was located on {CR 4327-1}.

'January 20th 1676 came John Abington of Calvert County, merchant and proved his right to two thousand two hundred acres of land for transporting the forty-four persons following into this province to inhabit.' John Orrell (Orwell) included in this list.

Cavaliers and Pioneers - Abstracts of Virginia Land Patents and Grants, Vol II: 1666-1695 by Nell Marion Nugent includes the following records. They are included because Virginia and Maryland are bordering states, the years of the records, and because of the similarity of Virginia Orrell names and Maryland Orrell names:

² Cited as John Orwell. The original Patent Book was recopied into another Patent Book. I have researched the early records of Maryland and do not locate an Orwell family. I therefore believe, with a high amount of certainty that the person cited was John Orrell.

p. 92: Mr. Leonard Clayborne granted 3000 acres for transporting 60 persons 1 April 1671 including Alex. Orrell.

p. 150: Mr. George Pearce granted 2100 acres for transporting 42 persons 21 September 1674 including Alexdr. Orrell.

p. 236: Mr. Richard Hutchins, Jr. granted 226 acres for transporting 5 persons 20 April 1682 including Robert Orrell³.

Will of Richard Benson Orrell (1953) - { 1st Page Only }

Case No. 756 Filer No. 61311	LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF RICHARD BENSON ORRELL. 312 I, RICHARD BENSON ORRELL, of Baltimore City, in the State of Maryland, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, hereby revoking any and all former Wills, codicils and other testamentary dispositions heretofore by me made, do make, publish and declare this as and for my Last Will and Testament, in the manner and form following, that is to say: FIRST: I direct my Executors, hereinafter named, to pay my just debts and funeral expenses and to expend out of my estate such sums of money as to them shall seem proper for such funeral expenses, without necessity of obtaining permission from the Orphans' Court for Baltimore City or any other Court for authority to do so. SECOND: After the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses as aforesaid, I give, devise and bequeath all of my estate and property, whether real, personal or mixed, of whatsoever kind, nature and description and wheresoever situate, which I may own at the time of my death, unto my friend, JEROME MARTIN BLAIR, and my Attorney, GEORGE C. BAST, JR., their survivor, successor or successors, as Trustees, in special trust and confidence, nevertheless for or upon the following uses and purposes and with the powers hereinafter set out, that is to say in trust: To take, have, receive and hold my said estate, to invest same and keep same invested, and to change the investments thereof from time to time, under and subject to the powers and provisions hereinafter set forth, to collect the rents, revenues, income, issues and profits arising therefrom and thereout, and after first paying therefrom all taxes, costs, charges and expenses incident to the trust, including compensation to said Trustees for their services hereunder equal to that customarily allowed by the Circuit Courts for Baltimore City to a trustee performing similar services when acting under its jurisdiction, to dispose of the net income and principal of my estate as follows: My Trustees shall pay the net income from my said estate for the education, maintenance and support of my daughter, CATHERINE C. ORRELL, until she shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years. In addition to said payments of income, my Trustees shall pay to or for the use of my said daughter so much of the principal of the said trust estate as in the opinion of my Trustees shall be required for her education, maintenance and support, my Trustees to be the sole judge of the necessity of such payments of principal. When my said daughter shall have attained the age of twenty-one (21) years, my said Trustees shall grant, convey, pay-over and transfer unto her the principal of the trust property as then constituted free, clear and discharged from any trust. (a). In the event that my said daughter, Catherine C. Orrell, should predecease me or should die before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, leaving a child or children living at the time of the death of the survivor of herself and myself, then in either of such events, I give, devise and bequeath my said estate as aforesaid, real, personal or mixed as constituted at the time of my death or as constituted in the hands of my said Trustees in the administration of the trust for my said daughter, as the case may be, unto such child or children of my said daughter, if more than one then in equal shares and if only one then to that one absolutely; if in the event however, that my said daughter, Catherine C. Orrell, should predecease me or should die before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, without leaving a child or children living at the time of the death of the survivor of herself and myself, then in either of such events, I give, devise and bequeath my said estate as afore-

Richard Benson Orrell, Baltimore City, 1954, Wills File 61311, Case 756 No 5, folio 312-5 (CR-9650-2)

The reader is urged to check alternate spellings of names and to carefully examine all entries. For example: R.L. Orrell, Reverdy L. Orrell, Reverdy Lewin Orrell, R.L. Orrell, Sr., Reverdy L. Orrell, Sr., and Reverdy Lewin Orrell, Sr. could (but might not) be the same person. Often times a name is spelled several different ways. For example: Adaline DeRochbrune, Adeline DeRochbrune, and Addie DeRochbrune are possibly the same person. Also there are many times where a person's name is spelled differently within the same document. In those cases I have recorded the document exactly as I found it. The only times I have corrected the document is in those cases where I positively can prove the error.

When searching for females please remember to search for maiden names, married names and sometimes second marriage names.

Entries in italics indicate tracts of land, company names, buildings, or places.

The reader is instructed to check each page carefully. There are many instances where a name is listed several times on the same page.
